M'KINLEY GOES IN.

A TREMENDOUS REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE.

M'KINLEY 292, BRYAN 155.

DEMOCRATS GET SIXTEEN LESS VOTES THAN IN 1896.

All the Big So-called Doubtful States Heavily in the Republican Column. Democrats Gain 100,000 on Their Loss in New York Four Years Ago, but Still Behind Over 168,000—The Next Congress Will be Overwhelmingly Republican in Both Branches—Mr. Bryan Loses Some States He Carried in '96 and Gains Some. Mr. Bryan Lost His Own Precinct and County.

As early as six o'clock yesterday afternoon there were indications that a Republican landslide had occurred in the nation. An occasional dispatch was coming in then, some of them hopeful for the Democrats, but the drift pretty soon turned the other way. The returns were received in the court house, at the Merchants and Manufacturers' Club, Republican headquarters, and the City National Bank. Before ten o'clock the Democrats in Greensboro had lost all hope.

The Republicans made a clean sweep, electing their man by 292 to Bryan's 155. Not a large doubtful State went for Bryan. In Indiana their plurality is 21,000; Ohio, 60,000; Illinois, 100,000; South Dakota, 10,000; Delaware, 25,000; New York State, 147,455. In Greater New York City McKinley got 280,394, Bryan, 308,018; Odell, Republican, for governor, 271,155; Stanchfield, Democrat, 315,125.

McKinley is elected by the following vote:

NEW YORK PAPERS' ESTIMATE. The New York Sun makes a total for McKinley of 292, and Bryan 155, giving McKinley Utah. The Tribune gives the same figures.

The World and Herald make a total for McKinley of 305 and Bryan 142, putting Kentucky in the Republican column.

The Times makes McKinley 284 and Bryan 163, putting Nebraska and Kentucky in the Democratic party.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The next Senate will have a Republican majority over all opposition of 24, the number of Republicans reaching 57. The present Senate has 51 Republicans. The next House will have a Republican membership of 202, and a majority of 47.

NEW YORK STATE GIVES M'KINLEY 168,142 MAJORITY.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Evening Sun makes the United States Senate: Republicans, 58; Democrats, 28; Silverites, 1; Populists, 4; Independents, 1. In the House: Representatives, 209; Democrats, Silverites and Populists, 148. It says McKinley will have the largest electoral vote ever cast, 292. He may have Kentucky also. The plurality of Odell for Governor of New York is 173,193. McKinley carries New York State by 168,142 majority.

THE JOURNAL'S ESTIMATE.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Journal gives McKinley 292 electoral votes, Bryan 135. It puts Kentucky in the Democratic column. It gives the states that turned to McKinley as Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wyoming. It makes the house of representatives 208 Republicans and 145 Democrats. Senate, Republicans 48, Democrats 31. There is a gain of seventeen Representatives and four Senators. Approximates McKinley's plurality in the State of New York, 150,000, Odell's, 123,000.

BRYAN LOSES HIS OWN PRECINCT.

New York, Nov. 7.—Bryan men now claim Nebraska, but the indications are that it has gone Republican. The legislature is also Republican and will elect two United States Senators. Bryan lost his own precinct and his own township. McKinley carried the precinct by 103, and the city of Lincoln by 1,602, and the State by about eight thousand.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

Rang Out Merrily for a Greensboro Couple This Afternoon—Only a Few Friends Present.

Mr. William H. McCormick and Miss Cora E. Kirkman, both of this city, were quietly married this afternoon at the rectory of the Catholic church, Rev. Father Anthony performing the ceremony. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Mr. McCormick is well known here, having for several years been connected with the Cone Export & Commission Company and being at present at the head of their sample department. Miss Kirkman has made her home in our city for some time, being also an employee of the Cone company. The happy couple left at once for the home of the bride's father in the Southern part of the county, where they will spend some time.

MR. JAMES LOVE SHOT

Nothing Can Be Found Out Regarding the Shooting or How Serious It Was.

Mr. E. E. Bain received a telegram last night from the operator at Red Springs saying that Mr. Jim Love, son of Mr. Wm. Love of this city, had been seriously shot, and requesting that his father come to Red Springs on the first train. Mr. Bain at once wired back to learn more of the particulars but nothing further could be gotten. A message from there this morning stated that Mr. Love was resting easy. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Love went to Red Springs on the noon train today.

Jersey Cattle Sale.

There will be an auction sale of Gen. Julian S. Carr's thoroughbred Jersey cattle tomorrow at 11 o'clock at Vanstoy's stables. The animals are all registered and are fine stock. Fifty head will be sold.

BIG BRYAN SLUMP IN THE STATE

BUT CHAIRMAN SIMMONS GOES IN WITH FLYING COLORS.

Not Believed at Two O'clock That Mr. Bryan Has More Than 15,000—Republicans Swept the Eight and Ninth Districts and the Third in Debut—Simmons Gets in by the Comfortable Majority of Some Fifty or Sixty Thousand—Populists Voted Solidly in Some Sections for McKinley.

Mr. Bryan has perhaps carried North Carolina by 15,000, not more.

Mr. Simmons' majority over General Carr is at least 50,000.

The eighth and ninth districts have been carried by the Republicans by from 2,000 to 2,500.

Kitchin has a good majority.

General Carr carried only a few counties, Mecklenburg, Guilford, Union, Rowan, Iredell, Anson, Cabarrus, Granville, and perhaps others, all by small majorities. His own county he carried entire.

The following special dispatch to the Telegram sums up the situation this afternoon:

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—It is now believed that Bryan has carried the State by not over 15,000.

There is fear as to Thomas' election to congress in the Third district. Up to noon he was said to be only 350 ahead of Fowler, with some doubtful territory unheard from. Democrats concede that the Republicans have swept the Eight and Ninth districts for Blackburn and Moody.

Simmons' majority is piling up. At one o'clock he told me it looked like 55,000, and he believed it would go to 68,000 or 69,000.

Great numbers of Populists voted for McKinley. They did this almost solidly in Sampson and Chatham. Jenkins, Populist, carried Chatham for Congress by 800. McKinley carried the county by 800. Pou has perhaps 10,000 majority for Congress.

BRYAN TAKES IT EASY.

Slept All Night and Got up at the Usual Time Cheerful and Contented.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Lincoln, Nov. 7.—Mr. Bryan rose at his usual time this morning refreshed by a long, sound sleep, and to outward appearance as cheerful and contented as if he had not been defeated a second time. He received a number of intimate friends.

M'KINLEY FEELS GOOD.

Received His Friends This Morning and Expressed Great Satisfaction.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Canton, Nov. 7.—The President and Mrs. McKinley this morning, after breakfast, received many friends who called to offer congratulations. He was in buoyant spirits and expressed warm gratification at the results. Telegrams from all parts of the country poured in. Roosevelt early congratulated him. Canton was wild with enthusiasm all night.

SOCIAL CARD CLUB.

Entertained Last Night by Mrs. Judge W. P. Bynum—Those Present Beside Members of the Club.

Mrs. W. P. Bynum entertained the Social Card Club very delightfully yesterday afternoon at her home on Arlington street. In the game of progressive whist, which Mrs. Bynum gave her guests the pleasure of a hand at, Mrs. Caesar Cone and Miss May Small won an even number of points and cut for the prize, a handsome cameo candlestick, which Miss Small was lucky in securing. Mrs. Bishop fell heir to the consolation—a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums.

Besides the club members present, Mrs. Bynum numbered among her guests Mesdames Fry, Oscar Williams, W. T. Gayle, Parker, Bernard, and Misses Walker Fry, Laura and Bessie Ballard and Beame.

Where the Chrysanthemum Show Will be Held.

The ladies have secured the store room next door to Clegg's wholesale house for their Chrysanthemum show which begins next Wednesday.

TOES AND FINGERS.

Seems to Have Been a Regular Conspiracy Against Them.

Last Friday a horse stepped on the foot of Mr. John M. Dick. The wound was painful and he was laid up. He came up today and had a physician examine the wound and the latter found that one of the toes had been broken.

Mr. Walter Turner, who works at the Southern Bobbin factory, suffered the loss of one of his fingers this morning, which was cut off by a piece of machinery.

Miss Della McClamroch, while feeding a mangle at the Gate City Laundry yesterday, in some way caught her middle finger between the rollers, severely lacerating it. Her presence of mind and ready courage in pulling her finger from the machine was all that saved her from losing her entire hand.

BAD STREETS—BIG GULLIES.

The Attention of the Aldermen is Called to the Dangerous Conditions in Certain Places.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I wish to call the attention of the superintendent of streets and the Board of Aldermen to the wretched condition of our streets in North Greensboro. There is a big gully at the corner of Cedar and Schenck streets that is dangerous. North Edgeworth is also becoming badly washed, near the cemetery, while the Battle Ground road northeast of the water works is beginning to wash in gullies badly. We appreciate Professor Bandy's difficulties with few hands, but necessities cases like those I have mentioned, that are really dangerous, should have immediate attention and save the city from a lawsuit for damages and probably an indictment if any accident should occur.

D. SCHENCK.

ANOTHER CONTINENTAL BILL.

This One is a $20 and is in Possession of Mr. J. H. Gilliland.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. J. H. Gilliland read in The Telegram about the $60 continental bill that the Spokane man was bragging about, and the one that the Omaha man had, and the one that Mr. Swain, of Greensboro, has, and it reminded him that he had an old one. When he looked it up, it was found to be a $20 bill of the same date and issue of the $60 one spoken of yesterday, and just like it except the figure on the face, which, instead of a globe, is a square.

The bill was found in the papers of Mr. Gilliland's father-in-law, Mr. Joseph Gant, who died about a year ago. How long he had had it no one knows.

HELEN IS NOT POPULAR.

The New Queen of Italy Is Not Thought Well Of by the Common People.

Though a woman of great beauty and many charming accomplishments, Queen Helen of Italy does not promise to become a favorite with the people. Cold and undemonstrative, reserved and taciturn rather than effusive, her qualities are calculated to appeal rather to the Piedmontese highlanders like herself than to the population of the rest of Italy. There is no doubt that the disappointment freely and unkindly expressed by the newspapers of the peninsula regarding her failure to fulfill national expectations in the presentation to the kingdom of an heir to the throne has had the effect of raising a sort of barrier of antagonism between herself and the people of her adopted country. She seems to feel that they resent her childlessness, while they, on the other hand, do not hesitate to express freely the disappointment of the dynastic hope which they had based upon the marriage, says a London paper.

Queen Margherita's popularity was a source of strength to her husband as ruler. Even at the moment when, owing to the mistakes, domestic and foreign, of his ministers, he was most unpopular and reviled as "the Austrian colonel," she always remained an object of so much affection on the part of the people of every shade of political opinion that the field day was chosen in her honor as the emblem of a number of political societies, some of them, such as the Italia Irredenta, being hostile alike to the government and to the king. But for a queen to be popular in Italy it is necessary that she be of Italian birth and of Italian disposition, and neither the Montenegrin-born Queen Helen nor yet the French-born Duchess Helen of Aosta, who, as the wife of the heir-apparent of the crown, may eventually succeed her as queen, is ever likely to give the same amount of political support to her husband as Queen Margherita was able to furnish to the late King Humbert. Nor is it probable that she will ever share to the same degree as her mother-in-law the duties of her husband as ruler. Humbert was notoriously influenced in many matters by his consort, especially in connection with the triple alliance, which she induced him to join. But Queen Helen is completely dominated by her diminutive husband, who, like so many small men, is far too autocratic to accept any advice or to brook any interference, even on the part of his wife, in his duties as ruler.

Disadvantage.

"A pretty girl," observed the Plain Girl, bitterly, "has a great advantage in this business of making a name for herself!"

"I don't know!" sighed the Pretty Girl.

"She finds so many lovely ready-to-wear names at hand!"—Puck.

THE DESCENDENTS OF BLAKELY.

ARE THERE ANY NOW IN NORTH CAROLINA?

If so They Are Wanted by the Navy Department--The Special Preparation for the Carr-Lyon Marriage--Marriage at Rex Hospital.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Nov. 6.—Never was there a more charming election day. It was so nearly all over the county. In a few small areas there were clouds, but nowhere was it necessary to raise an umbrella, the weather observer says. So the guessers stuck to it that the total vote would be at least 15,000,000.

The news which came from Chatham county was that Giles, Republican, and Jenkins, Populist, were fighting each other tooth and nail. That is about all the fun they could get out of the election.

Chairman Simmons arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning from the east, and was in his office by 10. General Carr arrived from the east at 4 o'clock in the morning. He was at a hotel while and then went out on the street and saw friends.

Raleigh had exceptional chances to hear election returns. A bucket shop rented the city hall and gave "ticker" returns. The Una Clayton company is at the Academy of Music and during the performance the returns were read. The News and Observer gave a special stereopticon service.

C. M. Busbee, Simmons' manager, got many telegrams during the day. He was particularly pleased with one from A. M. Scales, of Greensboro.

The navy department is anxious to find some descendants of the brave Capt. Johnston Blakely, of the United States Navy, whose orphan daughter was adopted by this State. The daughter was educated and maintained at the State's expense. It will be remembered that last summer in this correspondence there was a special allusion to this matter, so entirely unique in the State's history. Your correspondent has a somewhat vague idea that there are descendants of the gallant Blakely in northeastern North Carolina. A torpedo boat, soon to be launched, is to be given his name and a descendant is desired to duly christen it. Any information as to the matter should be sent to Secretary of State Thompson, at Raleigh, where the navy department makes the inquiry.

This evening while your correspondent was chatting with Major General Robert F. Hoke, on the street, the venerable Mr. Charles Root came up. The general remarked, with a smile, "Mr. Root administered the oath of office to me in 1861, when I came here as a lieutenant from Lincoln county. My company was at first quartered in the basement of the First Baptist church." Mr. Root, too, is nearly 80 years of age.

Special preparations are being made here for the marriage of Miss Snowden Carr and Mr. R. E. Lyon at Durham tomorrow. A livery firm here is having eight landaus lined with white satin for the occasion, by order of the groom elect. These will leave here at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning for Durham. It required 200 yards to line them.

At Rex hospital here last night a young lady from Kittrell was married to Mr. Sugg, of Littleton, who is critically ill. He was so sick that he could not even be raised up in bed during the ceremony. His father, gave the bride away. He came here with her, she having no father or mother. The bride is the guest of Rev. G. F. Smith, who performed the ceremony.

Next to the Consumer

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity. They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been too low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Aged Couple Killed by an Engine.
Montfield, Mass. Dispatch.
Sanford W. Weatherhead and his wife, both between sixty and sixty-five years old, were almost instantly killed early yesterday by being struck by an engine on the New London and Northern Railroad, at Wares Crossing, this town.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatherhead were returning home about six o'clock from a visit to friends, when a freight train passed in front of them in a southerly direction. They evidently thought no other train was near, but as they drove upon the track they were struck by an engine attached to two cars, which killed the horse and demolished the carriage. The aged couple were taken to a house near by, where they died a few minutes later.

Mr. Weatherhead was a prosperous farmer. He was for many years station agent at Northfield Farms.

"Come, sir," sternly spake the captain, as the last boatload of passengers waited for the word to push off, "you are the only one left, and you have not a moment to lose."

"Captain," replied Col. Bluegrass, pale, but self-possessed, "I shall go down with the ship."

"I am sorry to say I have no money," complacently remarked the seedy-looking chap as the conductor came through for his fares; "can't you let me ride free, just as a joke?" "I think the joke has been carried far enough," replied the conductor as he reached for the bell cord.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Howard Gardner.

GENERAL CARR.

This paper took no part in the senatorial fight. It was not its business to do so. It has been a spectator, and hopes it has learned something. It proposes, however, to speak its mind on the result and the fight itself, from time to time. That may have no effect, we don't expect it to, but that will cut no ice. What we desire is now to say that we hope General Julian S. Carr will prove himself in the time of defeat a man of fortitude. We hope that his philosophy is tough enough to sustain him in an hour when he realizes not only that he has sustained a terrible defeat, but that that defeat was accomplished by the machinery of the party that he has fought to sustain and build up in season and out of season. We hope that he may be strong enough not to show the weakness that small men betray in time of disappointment.

One thing should be of peculiar value to him. That is that he carried, though defeated, a magnificent following, one that any man might well be proud of. And more, that these supporters value his record and his services to the State and to humanity more than they ever did. When the day of the politician is passed, North Carolina will learn how to reward State service instead of party service, but that day is not yet.

The New York Evening Post of Monday said: "The most impressive feature of the campaign has been the evidence of careful reflection as to their duty in a disagreeable situation manifested by intelligent and independent voters. The Evening Post has never before in a Presidential campaign received anything like so many 'letters to the editor,' and we have had abundant evidence that a large proportion of our readers have been deeply interested in the great variety of views thus expressed. The same thing seems to us true of the voters generally—that an uncommon proportion of them have brought intelligence and conscience to bear upon the problem before them." That this is true, no one can doubt. To many people in North Carolina the problem has been perplexing. A vast number of thinking men took no stock in free silver. Many of them little understood the real issue of imperialism, and between the fearful prediction of Democrats and the utmost assurance of Republicans knew scarcely which way to turn. Still a great many, while not desiring to vote the Democratic ticket did not want to vote the Republican ticket. We can only hope that before another election the situation will be so clear as to give the conscientious, but doubtful voter, a chance.

Mr. Bryan retires. He has had two fair whacks and failed. That is enough for any man. He ran against hard times four years ago and bucked prosperity yesterday, and was both times unhorsed. If the Democrats don't want to drop him because he has been defeated twice they might do it on the ground that he can never be elected.

Fifty years hence, when the files of the present time are scanned, the reader will not find a line in this paper reflecting upon the character or worth of either of these gentlemen (Carr or Simmons.)—News and Observer.

And, faith, who'll be a-scouring of em then?

We will now have time to find out that fully two thirds of the anti-election talk was no good.

We are reliably informed that the Emperor will be crowned on the 4th of July.

AMERICAN ATTRACTIONS.

Comparison Between the Scenic Beauties of Switzerland and Colorado.

Switzerland, "the playground of Europe," is visited annually by over 15,000 American tourists and invalids. Why?

While the Alps have isolated peaks such as Mont Blanc (15,781 feet), and the Matterhorn (14,836 feet), the mean elevation of the highest Alpine chain is from only 8,000 to 9,000 feet. Colorado possesses more than 120 peaks over 13,500 feet in altitude, of which no fewer than 35 peaks range from 14,000 feet upward. In the whole of Europe, there are not over 12 mountain peaks of note.

The highest village in Europe is Avers Platz in Switzerland (7,500 feet); the highest inhabited point in Europe is the Hospice of St. Bernard in Switzerland (8,200 feet). In Colorado the mining town of Leadville, with 15,000 inhabitants, is 10,200 feet above sea level; other mining camps are still higher and some gold and silver mines are worked at an altitude of over 12,000 feet.

The highest wagon road in Europe is said to be the Stelvio road in Switzerland (9,170 feet). In Colorado the railroads cross the crest of the continent at Fremont Pass (11,328 feet), Marshall Pass (10,852 feet) and Tennessee Pass (10,433). Switzerland does not possess, even in the famous St. Gothard line, any railroad engineering surpassing, if equaling, these. There are wagon roads over numerous passes in Colorado ranging from 12,000 feet upwards, the highest being Mosquito Pass (13,700 feet).

In Switzerland the cog-railroad from Vitznau to the summit of the Rigi Kulm (5,900 feet) has a length of four and a half miles, in which the ascent is 4,072 feet. In Colorado the cog-railroad from Manitou to the summit of Pike's Peak (14,147 feet) has a length of eight and three-quarters miles, in which the ascent is 8,100 feet, or an average of 846 feet per mile, the maximum grade being 1,320 feet.

One class of Switzerland's finest scenery is along the Via Mala, the Schyns Pass and Urnerloch. In Colorado, the Canon of the Arkansas with the Royal Gorge, the Black Canon of the Gunnison, the Canon of the Rio de las Animas, the Canon of the Grand river, and others, are all much longer, quite as grand as and more varied in character than the best passes in Switzerland. The walls of the Canons of the Grand river, the Gunnison and the Arkansas rise to a sheer height of more than 2,000 feet.

As Colorado can be reached by at least one railroad—the Burlington—in one night from either Chicago or St. Louis, it is hard to understand why more Americans do not travel west instead of east in search of health and pleasure.

MUSIC AND SCENERY.

Wagner's Productions Only Enjoyed When Supplemented by Suitable Scenery.

The strict Wagnerite refuses to hear the music of his favorite composer in the concert-room. It was never intended, he will tell you, to be performed by itself, but to be played as an accompaniment to the action, for the purpose of heightening the effect of the intensely dramatic situations coupled with gorgeous stage pictures that are inseparable from Wagner's famous art work, says the London Mail.

The most important part of a Wagner opera, according to the composer himself, is not the music, but the drama, which, indeed, the beginner should closely follow with the aid of the book of words, since the music is usually sung in German words.

The intending Wagnerite should also begin with the master's most popular works, "Tannhauser" and "Lohengrin." He will then at once recognize the familiar music he has already heard so often at concerts, and, struck by its beauties, he will attend many performances of these two. Next year he will want to hear these again, supplemented by "Tristan and Isolde," that wonderful music drama so charged with intense emotion and passion. Having heard "Tristan" and liked it he thereupon becomes a full-fledged Wagnerite in the true sense, and the season after he attends performances of the "Ring des Nibelungen," or he may make a supreme effort to get to Bayreuth. From Bayreuth he returns the ardent disciple of a musician whose name he terrifies his friends by pronouncing in the German fashion, not Wagner, but "Vaachkner."

Thomas Jugged His Memory. A certain elderly gentleman suffered much from absent mindedness, and was frequently compelled to seek the assistance of his servant. "Thomas," he would constantly say, "I have just been looking for something, and now I can't remember what it is," whereupon the obliging Thomas invariably made suggestions. "Was it your purse, or spectacles, or check book, sir?" And so on, till he hit on the right object.

One night, after the old gentleman had retired, the bell rang for Thomas, and on reaching the bedroom he found his master rambling restlessly about his room.

"Thomas, Thomas," he said, "I came up here for something, and now I've forgotten what!"

"Was it to go to bed, sir?" suggested his faithful retainer.

"Ah! the very thing—the very thing! Thank you, Thomas. Good night!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

"Got any fresh hen's eggs?" asked the storekeeper at Hikap's Corner. "Yep," replied the farmer. "Here's 11 or eight, laid by the freshest hen in the business."—Philadelphia North American.

The Telegram's Tea Table Talk

"Booze, booze, gimme booze or gimme death," thus grunted and mumbled a slouching, crouching figure that had been a man. In his mumbling, drunken voice he went on to say that he had been at the University of Virginia with a certain well known gentleman of this city, that he had done newspaper work, but that drink had gotten the better of him, till now he wanted nothing else but the mere pleasure of gratifying his appetite. He expressed no regrets; he gave no sign of repentance. It was as spilled milk for him. Perhaps he had gone too far for that. But like drunken men who have a hobby when sober, always do, he began to speak of his. It was his learning. His mathematics, his languages, his knowledge of this and that, all came in for boasting.

This talk of learning brought out from his fellow-tourist some remarks expressive of the most abject disgust. This companion was altogether of different fibre. He had been a Republican politician on a very small scale, and had happened in this State about election time, and had heard a good deal of the talk indulged in by his fellow Republicans regarding the difficulty likely to be encountered by a colored Republican after the amendment becomes effective. Nothing could be more disgusting to his esthetic sense. "Don't talk to me about yer learnin', yer bloke," he said to his scholar drunk. "I might know all er'bout French, and all er'bout Latin, and everything else and then not know enough er'bout English to git along and git my vote counted in North Carolina."

The Talker asked Dr. Scott, in the course of conversation, about the new method recently used in a surgical operation of injecting a new substance into the spinal cord, and by it producing insensibility to pain while at the same time allowing the patient to retain his consciousness. "It is quite in the experimental stage," he said. "What may come of the discovery remains to be seen. It will be fought. All advanced ideas have been fought. Old surgeons once hooted at anesthetics of all kinds." This called to mind the somewhat ancient and wholly sage advice which says be not the first to try the new, and the wonder what show the new would have if everybody were to take this advice.

Mr. J. W. Albright yesterday took his stand at one of the ballot boxes for the purpose of watching the voters as they passed in and out and see how many he knew. Afterwards he was making his brag about how many he recognized. Maj. Joseph M. Morehead took him up on it, pretty strongly intimating that he was "stretching his blanket" lest folks think he was getting out of touch with the town that he used to know so much about before it got to be so big. "Why, Joe," replied Mr. Albright, "I knew all the older men and a good many of the younger ones." "Why, Jim," replied the Major, "there are 2,000 men over forty years old in this town that you don't know." And "Jim" had to admit that he had gotten out of the whirl a little since he has been living in Asheville.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeits commit fraud. Honest men will not deceive you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing piles, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Wigg—"I hear Brown is going to enter the theatrical profession. I dare say he will take a nom de theatre." Wagg—"Yes; he's going to take the name of Derrick." Wigg—"Aspires to elevate the stage, I suppose."

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.
All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box. 8096—Ladies' Shirt Waist with Sailor Collar.
32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust.

LADIES' SHIRT WAIST, WITH SAILOR COLLAR, NO. 8096.

This jaunty shirt waist is made of green Henrietta, with collar and cuffs of a darker shade embroidered in black chenille. The stock, bow and belt are of black velvet, and the plastron is cream white cloth.

It is mounted on a glove-fitted lining which closes in the center front. The back fits smooth across the shoulders and is drawn to the center with slight fullness at the waist line, which forms in tiny plaits.

The fronts open over a plastron and the slight blouse is adjusted in small gathers under the narrow velvet girdle which is fastened with a gold buckle. The plastron is permanently attached to the right lining front and fastens invisibly on the left side.

The smart sailor collar forms revers which meet at the lower edge of the plastron. The small bows of velvet are a pleasing addition.

The special feature in this waist is the new sleeve which is comparatively close fitting from elbow to shoulder, but quite full from elbow to wrist, where it is completed with a narrow straight cuff. The fullness is arranged at the upper edge of the cuff and droops considerably, after the fashion of the old time undersleeves which have been and are so popular. This new departure in sleeves is in evidence on our door wraps and street costumes, as well as house gowns and fancy waists. It is made with the inside seam only and presents a very stylish effect.

French fannel, cashmere, Lansdowne, serge and covert may be employed to develop this waist. It is also an appropriate mode for taffeta, India or China silk and soft satins.

To make the waist in the medium size will require one and three-fourths yards of forty-four-inch material. The pattern, No. 8096, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40-inch bust measure.

THE TELEGRAM will receive and forward orders for all patterns described in this column. The price is only ten cents for each pattern to cover cost of mailing and handling. In ordering fill blank below and send to The Telegram office:

FASHION NOTES.

HOW SHE GETS THE FRENCH EFFECT.

Short back and long front are now the joint aim of every woman, as this mode gives to the waist that willowy, slender appearance. A woman who always, even in the simplest gown, looks as if she were a clipping from a pretty fashion book, explained how she succeeded in always getting the desired effect at the waist line.

"All of my waists," said she, "are sewed on to a band extending to the front from the seams under the arms, the back of the waist being long in the regulation shirt style. This is worn under the skirt, while the front of the waist is worn outside, pinned down securely in front, the belt likewise being fastened down to the point and behold! so simply the thing is done."

It is certainly a wrinkle worth the knowing, and one can, with very little trouble, cut off one's shirt waists in front, sew on a band and get the same effect with all of them.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

THE NEW FURS.

Apparently two styles are to be used for fur coats—one that is worn like the covert-coat on all occasions, and made as simply as possible; the other, much more elaborate, with embroidered revers or with revers, collar, and cuffs of a different sort of fur. Seal-skin and lamb is a favorite combination, and while ermine and Parisian lamb are seen together, the effect is not considered particularly smart. Fur-lined coats are one of the luxuries of the times, but they are apt to be a little clumsy, and accordingly are only made up in the loose-fitting coats, cloaks, and capes. The fur-lined circular has quite resumed its hold over feminine fancy, and is now a necessary garment in every well-appointed outfit. Another garment that is most popular and useful is the circular cape of sealskin, of Persian lamb, or, best of all, sable, lined with white satin, and interlined merely as wrap. It has more fullness than the old-fashioned circular cape, but the fullness is well below the shoulders, and the garment itself is fitted perfectly smooth over the shoulders.—Harper's Bazar.

QUEEN WILHELMINA'S IRON WILL.

Young Queen Wilhelmina is a girl of iron will and towering pride. Her husband will be but an appendage, and never will hold the reins of government for an hour. When she was crowned the air was as full of a dread of anarchists as it is again today, and yet she was obliged to walk in the streets from the palace to the church. Every inch of the route was guarded, but a vast multitude pressed behind the soldiers. The 18 year old miss strode firmly forward, but her lips were pressed together, the blood left her face and she quickly turned pallid. Reaching the church the people thought that for an instant her feet wavered, as if she might fall. Her throne was pushed forward vacant, lonely and prominent. Her mother, who was that morning to cease to be queen, sat upon a throne behind the true one. She stood up and strode forward with her arms out as if to embrace her daughter, but the girl did not forget who was the real queen. She halted and put out her right hand for her mother to kiss, thus establishing her supreme position on the first instant that she got her rulership. To retain this self-possession and to insist upon recognition of her rights, even from her mother, while under the nervous strain produced by her exposure to death in the streets, shows to the full extent of what mettle the little queen is made. The husband who weds her need never aspire to be more than her consort and her lover.—Julian Ralph, in Brooklyn Eagle.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup you can realize how grateful mothers are for One Minute Cough Cure which gives relief as soon as it is administered. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

Sillicus—"No woman has ever made a fool of me." Cynicus—"Indeed! Who did?"

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure, after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Wigway—"Jones would rather borrow trouble than to borrow money." Harduppe—"What's the difference?"

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best liver pills ever made. Easy to take and never gripe. Howard Gardner.

Some girls marry for money, but, for that matter every clergyman does the same thing when he performs the ceremony.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

THE UNA CLAYTON COMPANY.

A GOOD SHOW COMING—AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

The Una Clayton Company and Ladies' Symphony Orchestra will commence a three night's engagement at the Academy of Music next Monday night. A matinee will be given Wednesday afternoon. This company, numbering eighteen people, comes highly recommended by both press and public in all of the southern cities where they have visited this season. Of this excellent company the Montgomery Journal of September 4th, says:

"The 'Standing Room Only' placard was hung up in the corridor of the Montgomery theatre last night before the curtain went up. When the play started every aisle and doorway was crowded by those who stood over two hours to see the performance. In numbers the house was second only to the great Mansfield house of last season."

"The Una Clayton Company began its week at the theatre with 'In Darkest Russia.' The play was seen here last year, presented by a high-priced organization. It is a play of strong dramatic interest and is one that demands a strong company to successfully present it. The company last night scored an acknowledged success. Different scenes were vociferously applauded. At the end of the third act the entire company was called before the curtain."

"Miss Clayton was already a favorite with Montgomery theatre-goers, and won fresh laurels last night. She invests every role that she essays with a human and feminine interest, and in strong dramatic situations she is excellent. Last night she took the part of Ilva Barasky."

The opening bill will be the great Russian drama, entitled "Darkest Russia."

On Monday night ladies will be admitted free if accompanied by a paid 30-cent ticket. Popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cents.

You can't keep your house warm without a coaled cellar.
